Abercrombie & Kent Solo Travel Savings

Now is the perfect time to take a solo journey with A&K

As more travellers choose to see the world on their own, Abercrombie & Kent introduces unbeatable new value on solo travel pricing. We offer inspiring journeys to some of the world’s most exotic destinations – such as Turkey, Kenya and Tanzania – including over 30 departures with waived or reduced single supplements by as much as 75%.

On any of A&K’s journeys, solo travellers enjoy peace of mind – our 60 global offices provide on-the-ground support 24/7, ensuring their safety and comfort every step of the way. They also enjoy the company of an A&K Tour Director, an expert in their destination’s history and culture, and share their experiences with other like-minded adventurers, while still lodging in the privacy of their own accommodations.

Unprecedented value, safety and security, expert guidance and a world of destinations – there has never been a better time, nor a better company than A&K, for solo travel.

“My experience with A&K, when I was the only solo traveller in the group, was fabulous. Our guide was wonderful, and his efforts made me much more comfortable.”

More Great Value for Solo Travellers

Beyond Solo Savings, solo travellers have several ways to discover the world on their own, on A&K journeys that offer excellent value.

Abercrombie & Kent continues to offer escorted programs worldwide that feature low single supplements – generally less than 15% of the total trip price. What's more, many European canal and river barges, as well as the Galápagos adventure cruiser MV 'Eclipse,' also offer single stateroom options.

Solo travellers looking for a challenge can set off on an A&K Extreme Adventure, physically demanding expeditions designed for small groups of just four to six travellers. A popular choice for solo adventurers, Extreme Adventures delivers travellers to the world's wildest reaches and greatest heights for a challenging, life-changing experience.
